

Good afternoon,

I live in MA but visit CT often. I am also a bowhunter. I purchase non-resident license in RI because they allow Sunday hunting. I support the local economy by spending my hard earned money on fuel, food and even hotels. This may not seem significant, but others from MA would also prefer to hunt CT on Sundays.

Allowing hunting on Sundays would boost the economy and help the State meet their deer density goals.